A large tray of fruit skewers, featuring raspberries, strawberries, and white marshmallows, is prominently displayed on the table. The skewers are arranged in a grid pattern, with a section of blueberries on the right side.

A plate of chocolate-covered round treats, possibly truffles or small cakes, is placed on a decorative plate with a red, white, and blue striped pattern and stars.

A large, clear plastic serving dish containing a yellow, cheesy dip or casserole is visible in the foreground. A white paper napkin is placed next to it.
